After all selected tracks finish importing, this prompt displays.

If Yes, is selected, the below screen displays populated with all recently imported tracks.

Use can edit imported track data either by clicking Yes when they are prompted after tracks finish importing. Or at any other time they can right-click or select "Edit Track Data" from the File menu.

Selecting "Select All" or selecting more than one track (using Ctrl or Shift) would repurpose the screen as shown on next page.

Clicking "Apply" updates the selected track(s) but does not close window. Clicking "OK" applies all updates and closes window.

This version of the Edit Track Data screen displays if Select All is chosen.

Artist: Velvet Underground

Album: The Velvet Underground & Nico

Track: multiple selected

Track # --

OK Apply Cancel

By default, Artist is checked and auto-populated with the editable artist name (if available and all selected tracks have the same artist name). If there are multiple artists, then the default text would read "multiple selected".

By default, Album is checked and auto-populated with the editable album name (if available and all selected tracks have the same album name). If there are multiple album names, then the default text would read "multiple selected".

Track is never editable in Select All mode.

Clicking "Apply" updates all the selected tracks and reverts back to regular Edit Track mode (without all selected)(presumably, the user would then finalize changes to just the track names). Clicking "OK" applies all updates and closes window.
